

RULES & REGULATIONS

("inakonigewun" Ojibway: Regulation)

In keeping with the program's ideology and to ensure that everyone's safety and welfare are always paramount, certain rules and regulations have been adopted and must be abided by. Violations of these rules are grounds for removal from the program, including the loss of a subsidiary's charter. The following actions are specifically prohibited:

1. Participation in all programs and events by a child without his or her parent, legal guardian, or other designated adult as registered on the membership application.
2. Failure to promptly pay all dues.
3. The possession or consumption of alcohol, any product containing marijuana (THC), or illegal drugs on or off the event or camp premises while the event or camp is being attended.
4. Falsification or misrepresentation of any information on a membership application or disclosure policy.
5. Use or possession of weapons or firearms, except when used:
  - a. Consistent with all local, state and federal laws; AND
  - b. As a part of a program event sponsored by an appropriate organization with adequate insurance coverage; OR
  - c. Is necessary for the safety and protection of the organization due to the location of the program or event.
6. Allowing judicially declared pedophiles in any program that would permit contact with a child.
7. Allowing the dissemination of any material that is sexually explicit or pornographic in nature.
8. Intentional and improper deflection of Native American organizations, religious organizations, or other people's racial or cultural values.
9. Allowing or condoning any other activity that would be inconsistent with the spirit of program.
